The American Hellenic Educational Progressive Association (AHEPA) was founded in 1922 in Atlanta, GA, and has been in Canada since 1928. It is the largest and oldest heritage organization of the Greek Diaspora, with chapters in the United States, Canada, Greece, Cyprus, Europe, and sister organizations in Australia and New Zealand. This year AHEPA will celebrate its 103rd Anniversary.

The Daughters of Penelope (DOP), an affiliate of AHEPA, was founded in 1929 in San Francisco, CA, and has been in Canada since 1938. It is an international women's organization, and the largest of Hellenic descent, with chapters in the United States, Canada, Greece, Cyprus, Europe, and Australia. This year the DOP will celebrate its 96th Anniversary.

The District No. 23 AHEPA Family comprises chapters of AHEPA, the DOP, the Sons of Pericles (SOP) and the Maids of Athena (MOA) in Ontario, Quebec, Nova Scotia, New Brunswick, Prince Edward Island, Newfoundland and Labrador.

The AHEPA and DOP mission is to promote:
Education, Hellenism, Philanthropy, Civic Responsibility, Family and Individual Excellence.
